Athletic Code of Conduct

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER MIDDLE SCHOOL

Anthony and Eisenhower Middle School Student-Athletes:

- Demonstrate exemplary behavior at all times—on the court, in their classrooms, hallways, and cafeteria.
- Demonstrate good sportsmanship and fair play in all competitive situations.
- Dress and act appropriately when representing their team, their school, and our city as a host to visiting teams or when traveling with the team to out-of-town games.
- Treat teammates, coaches, game officials, and spectators with respect and courtesy at all times.
- Place a high priority on academic achievement and understand that their ongoing athletic participation is dependent upon maintaining a passing grade in all classes during their sport season.
- Understand that any suspension from school directly impacts their good standing with the team and may result in additional team consequences being administered, at the discretion of the head coach.
- Attend all practices and games. When an absence is unavoidable, they communicate with the coach in an efficient manner.
- Take extreme care of school-issued equipment and return it promptly at the end of the season in good condition.
- Do not possess, use or sell alcohol, drugs, tobacco or other controlled substances.
- Avoid all illegal activities that would bring discredit to the student-athlete, team, or school (i.e., theft, harassment/ intimidation, fighting/battery, etc.).
- Know and understand that all people are different and have varied skills and abilities. They work to recognize the strengths of teammates and be an encourager to them in a way that builds up and develops the team into a more effective unit.
- Should strive to be positive leaders and role models in their building.
- Make a priority commitment to the middle school team, above all other non-school sport activities, during the school team season. They know that their teammates and coaches are counting on them to be reliable and committed to the school team.
